

General-purpose logic solutions

NXP has the second largest product portfolio offering in the traditional logic market and the largest product offering in PicoGate Logic. We offer all this functionality in the largest package offering with the lowest cost and most innovative package solutions to meet today's market needs. Whether it is lower power in a consumer and battery operated solution like an iPod or mobile phone, or a 16- or 32-bit function for a PC or communications product you can depend on NXP to have the solution to fit your needs.
